From acclaimed biographer of Bernard Berenson, Frank Lloyd Wright, Stephen Sondheim, et al., admired for her sensitivity, versatility, and eloquence—a new full-scale biography of the celebrated modernist painter and sculptor that brings to life the seemingly shy, delicate man behind the romantic myth; the first to reveal the truth of the artist inaccurately portrayed for almost a century.

By the acclaimed musician, a memoir about his hardscrabble childhood in Houston (the title refers to the neighborhood where Crowell grew up) that's ultimately a loving tribute to his highly distinctive but hardly conventional father and mother.

An enchanting, poignant memoir from one of Hollywood's most beloved icons.

Legend Frank Sinatra’s widow shares this unprecedented glimpse into the man behind the myth and the golden era in which they lived.

For readers of Sister Souljah’s No Disrespect, Nathan McCall’s Makes Me Wanna Holler, The Autobiography of Malcolm X, and Monster by Sanyika Shakur comes the definitive memoir from Ice-T, the acclaimed rapper and actor known for telling it like it is.
