Ultimate Explorer Field Guide: Reptiles and Amphibians

Find Adventure! Go Outside! Have Fun! Be a Backyard Ranger and Amphibian Adventurer
Catherine Herbert Howell

Summary

This fun, photo-filled, and fact-packed guide to reptiles and amphibians will make kids stop and look for all kinds of scaly and slimy creatures right in their own backyards. From turtles to geckos, red cornsnakes to toads, kids will learn how, where, and when to spot these animals all over the United States (and how to keep a safe distance when necessary). With tons of info and interactive prompts, it's the perfect companion for backyards or field trips, camping or vacations. Durable and portable, it's just right for your pocket or backpack!

Contributor Bio

Catherine Herbert Howell, a former National Geographic staff member, has written several books on natural history. She is the author of National Geographic Pocket Guide to Reptiles and Amphibians of North America (National Geographic Books 2015).

National Geographic Kids Chapters: Danger on the Mountain

True Stories of Extreme Adventure

Gregg Treinish, Kitson Jazyanka

Summary

Accomplished outdoor explorer Gregg Treinish loves adventure! Whether it's spending two years hiking the remote and perilously high Andes Mountains or coming face-to-face with wolverines, lynx, and bears, Gregg always knows where the action is. With gripping, true stories of incredible adventures, extreme excursions, and ultimate survival, this book will have you on the edge of your seat.

Contributor Bio

GREGG TREINISH founded Adventurers and Scientists for Conservation, a nonprofit organization connecting outdoor adventurers with scientists in need of data from the field. He also organizes his own expeditions, contributing to research on wildlife-human interaction, fragmented habitats, and threatened species.

National Geographic Kids Chapters: Living With Wolves!

True Stories of Adventures With Animals

Jim Dutcher, Jamie Dutcher

Summary

Imagine living with a pack of wolves! For National Geographic wildlife documentarians Jim and Jamie Dutcher, that dream came true. Join the Dutchers as they discover what life is like among wolves in the western wilderness. Filled with engaging photos, fast facts, and fascinating sidebars, readers will be howling for more.

Contributor Bio

JIM AND JAMIE DUTCHER spent six years living alongside a pack of wolves in order to reveal the majestic, social, and intelligent nature of these long-misunderstood animals. They are Emmy award-winning documentarians and the authors of National Geographic Kids, A Friend for Lakota, named an Amazon Best Nonfiction Book for 2015.

By the Numbers 2.0

Summary

Did you know that for every human being on Earth there are 1.4 billion insects? Or that one bat can eat up to 1,000 mosquitos every hour? Discover the amazing world of numbers and the real-world wonders they represent through creative, easy-to-understand infographics.

Infographics cover popular subjects from science and technology to nature and wildlife, as well as everyday activities like sports and TV. Colorful illustrated graphs, word clouds, pie charts, maps, photography, comparative images, and more illuminate the math behind statistics, trends, and measurements that we encounter every day.

Series Overview: By the Numbers is a new and innovative series from National Geographic Kids that aims to make math fun and understandable for fact hounds and reluctant readers alike. Readers will be captivated by cool infographics with amazing photos, awesome illustrations, wacky graphs, and fascinating charts.

Famous Fails!

Crispin Boyer

Summary

This fun book of fascinating failures and famous flops will keep kids laughing while they learn the importance of messing up in order to get it right. Science, architecture, technology, entertainment — there are epic fails and hilarious goof-ups from every important field. Side features help to analyze the failures: “Lesson Learned,” “It Could be Worse!,” “Losing Combinations,” and a “Fail Scale” help readers navigate the different kinds and scopes of the mistakes made. Read to learn what went wrong, what went right, and what kids can learn from each failed attempt.

Natumi Takes the Lead

The True Story of an Orphan Elephant Who Finds Family

Gerry Ellis, Amy Novesky

Summary

After losing her mother, shy Natumi is rescued by a team from the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust, an orphanage for baby elephants. At the shelter, Natumi hides behind keepers' legs to watch the other elephants at the shelter. But soon, she meets several other orphans, and the eight of them play together in the surrounding bush.

As the babies become closer and more like a real family, they need a leader, someone they can trust. Can Natumi grow into this role?

Join the herd to find out what happens when they travel back into the wild. This sweet story, with its heartwarming photographs, explores the challenges and joys of family, love, and growing up, and is a perfect bedtime tale.

Rise of the Lioness

Restoring a Habitat and its Pride on the Liuwa Plains

Bradley Hague

Summary

Poaching and war damaged an isolated wilderness in West Zambia, reducing its lion population to just one: Lady, the last lioness. Witness Lady's fight for survival in this evocative narrative on the decline, fall, and rebirth of the Liuwa Plains. Follow Lady as she grapples with an environment altered by human hands and discover how both Lady and humankind restore balance to the area.

More than a story about one brave lion, the Rise of the Lioness offers a great introduction to life science by looking at the workings of an ecosystem, the methods of scientists and environmentalists, and the interconnection among the plant, animal, and human systems.

Dining With Dinosaurs
A Tasty Guide to Mesozoic Munching
 Hannah Bonner

Summary

Sure, you know T-Rex was the meat-eating king and Diplodocus munched on leaves, but what else was on the dino dining menu during the Mesozoic era?

Meet the 'vores: carnivores, piscivores, herbivores, insectivores, "trashivores," "sunivores," and omnivores like us.

Young readers will be surprised and inspired to learn all about dino diets and they'll get to explore how scientists can tell which dinosaurs ate what just from looking at fossils!

Journey through artist and author Hannah Bonner's whimsical world to learn how the dinosaurs and their contemporaries chomped, chewed, and soaked up their food.

Extreme Wildfire

Smoke Jumpers, High-Tech Gear, Survival Tactics, and the Extraordinary Science of Fire

Mark Thiessen

Summary

In one moment, there's a simple spark, and then roaring flames surge 200 feet into the air, devouring forests. Trees, from root to canopy, are burned to the ground. Airtankers and helicopters hover above, executing an air attack. Brave firefighters, equipped with flame resistant suits, leap from helicopters onto the treetops and descend to the blazing forest floor.

In this book, National Geographic photographer and wildfire expert Mark Thiessen brings readers into the flames to feel the heat and work side-by-side with the heroes who keep our forests and their inhabitants safe. Thiessen's breathtaking "you are there" images combine with fascinating text about the science of fire, facts about prevention and containment, cutting-edge technology used to track and predict fire behavior, and the impressive skill, survival tactics, and bravery required to control a wildfire.

WORD COUNT: 30,000

Contributor Bio

MARK THIESSEN has been a National Geographic photographer for more than twenty years and is widely published in all areas of the National Geographic Society, including National Geographic magazine and numerous books. In 1996, Thiessen trained for and became a certified wild land firefighter so that he could undertake the personal photography project that led to this book.

Celebrate Valentine's Day focuses on historical and cultural aspects of this holiday and the international traditions, food, and celebrations associated with it. This celebration of love includes fun facts; a recipe; a map showing the location of all photographs; a resource list of books, videos, and Web sites; and a note from an expert consultant, aimed at parents and teachers, which deepens our understanding of the holiday's importance and meaning.

The history of the holiday is shrouded in mystery, but we do know that Valentine's Day wasn't always a time for red roses, candy hearts, and frilly greeting cards. Readers learn that some historians trace the feast of the patron saint of love to ancient Greek and Roman festivals that signaled the beginning of spring, which officially began in February in ancient Rome. We discover how, according to one legend, St. Valentine was a priest imprisoned for defying the emperor. Before being put to death, he sent the first "valentine"—a letter that he signed "From your Valentine," words still used on cards today.
