A life's work. A 400-year legacy. A year of celebrations.

- Fifty-state tour of Shakespeare's First Folio, the first printed collection of all his plays.
- Year-long international arts festival in Chicago anticipated to be the world's largest celebration of Shakespeare's enduring legacy, as more than 1,000 artists put on 850 productions throughout 2016.
- Museum of Modern Art, New York to feature highlights of the British Film Institute's largest ever, worldwide program of Shakespeare on film this fall.
