BIG FOOD BIG LOVE

Down-Home Southern Cooking Full of Heart from Seattle's Wandering Goose

Heather L. Earnhardt

Hailed by national food media from Bon Appétit to the Food Network, Heather L. Earnhardt celebrates big food and big love at her Seattle café, The Wandering Goose. Her first cookbook serves up Southern recipes with a taste of the Northwest.

When Heather L. Earnhardt opened her tiny, magical café, The Wandering Goose, in Seattle, she infused a little Southern comfort into the heart of a city that's skies are often gray. Her specialty is biscuits, slathered with butter and homemade jam, piled high with fried chicken and bread-and-butter pickles, or topped with country ham and an over-easy egg. In Big Food Big Love, this "red-dirt girl" shares stories from her childhood in the South and 130 recipes that contain a satisfying mix of nostalgic and traditional Southern favorites. Served up with a side of Southern charm, this is genuinely good and unfussy food that's meant to be eaten with family and friends.

Born in North Carolina, HEATHER L. EARNHARDT grew up with thick red dirt on her toes and food, food, and more food. Heather owns The Wandering Goose café and lives in Seattle with her husband and five children.

DEAD FEMINISTS

Historic Heroines in Living Color

Chandler O'Leary and Jessica Spring
Foreword by Jill Lepore

Girls Think of Everything meets Rad American Women A-Z in this gorgeously illustrated, letterpress-inspired book that combines feminist history with a vision for a better future.

Based on the cult-following Dead Feminists letterpress poster series, this illuminating look at 27 women who've changed the world features a foreword by Jill Lepore, author of The Secret History of Wonder Woman. Intricate and beautiful broadside art takes center stage in this richly visual book that ties inspiring women and the challenges they faced to today's most important issues. The book revisits the original broadside posters—plus adds new art, archival photographs, and ephemera—to tell the stories of feminists such as Eleanor Roosevelt, Gwendolyn Brooks, Rachel Carson, and more. Dead Feminists takes feminist inspiration to a new level of artistry and shows how ordinary and extraordinary women have made a difference throughout history (and how you can too!).

CHANDLER O'LEARY received her BFA from the Rhode Island School of Design. She is the proprietor of an illustration and lettering business called Anagram Press.

JESSICA SPRING holds an MFA from Chicago's Columbia College Center for Book and Paper Arts. She is a letterpress printer and teacher and the proprietor of Springtide Press.

JOURNEY

Based on the True Story of OR7, the Most Famous Wolf in the West

Emma Bland Smith; Illustrated by Robin James

This beautifully crafted picture book follows the 2,000-mile trek of a young gray wolf who incited nationwide attention when he became the first wild wolf in California in almost a century.

Using facts recorded by Fish & Wildlife scientists, author Emma Bland Smith imagines the wolf's experiences in close detail as he makes an epic 2,000-mile journey over three years, eventually becoming the first wild wolf in California since 1924. The wolf's story is interwoven with the perspective of a young girl who follows his trek through the media. As she learns more about wolves and their relationships with humans, she becomes determined to find a way to keep him safe by making him a wolf that is too famous to harm.

EMMA BLAND SMITH is a librarian and writer living with her family in San Francisco. This is her first book for children.

ROBIN JAMES has illustrated more than 75 books, including all of the titles in the much-loved Serendipity series. A native of the Pacific Northwest, she lives with her husband in Snohomish, WA.

To come to save the wolf? And Abby, I'm sorry to hear that.
conservation group was asking children to see
Abby in his life. She got out her notebook.
Doubtful?
Sure?
Call for Callahan? Or, for Clapp? Maybe.
She thought for hours.
And then it came to her.

The wolf stopped near some fallen trees. His sharp ears heard a human's and he turned his head toward the noise.
His powerful nose caught a lingering scent of a human. His tail dropped down and he froze. The human seemed to have seen the wolf's black skin, but they had leaves, and his long legs.
He crept away sharply and headed into the dense woods.

THE HIDDEN LIVES OF OWLS

The Science and Spirit of Nature's Most Elusive Birds

Leigh Calvez

A naturalist probes the forest, mainly at night, to comprehend the secret lives of owls in this book that will appeal to readers of Crow Planet and H is for Hawk.

Join a naturalist on adventures into the world of owls: owl-watching, avian science, and the deep forest—often in the dead of night. These birds are a bit mysterious, and that's part of what makes them so fascinating. Leigh Calvez makes the science entertaining and accessible while exploring the questions about the human-animal connection, owl obsession, habitat, owl calls, social behavior, and mythology.

LEIGH CALVEZ is a scientist and nature writer and the author of Whale Watching on the West Coast.

WOLF HAVEN

Sanctuary and the Future of Wolves in North America

Annie Marie Musselman; Essay by Brenda Peterson

This stirring book of photographs introduces the many wolves that have been given sanctuary at Wolf Haven International near Mount Rainier in southwest Washington State.

Annie Marie Musselman was given the rare opportunity to photograph the wolves at the Wolf Haven sanctuary. These captive-born and displaced wolves came from a variety of captive environments. Some of the highly endangered Mexican and red wolf pups will be raised with the possibility of future release into the wild. Human contact is very limited, so the images captured by Musselman express a wild spirit that is very different from anything seen in domesticated animals. Brenda Peterson's text puts the stories of these wolves, and of wolves in North America, into context as she describes their behavior patterns and social structure. Wolf Haven uncovers new truths about wolves and the ways humans are finding to coexist with these wild animals.

ANNIE MARIE MUSSELMAN is a fine-art photographer whose work has appeared in the New Yorker and National Geographic.

BRENDA PETERSON is a novelist, memoirist, and National Geographic nature writer. She is the author of eighteen books including Your Life is a Book (see page 20).

FEEDING THE WHOLE FAMILY

*Cooking with Whole Foods:
 More than 200 Recipes for Feeding Babies,
 Young Children, and Their Parents*

Cynthia Lair

This fully revised and updated edition of the best-selling cookbook (over 90,000 sold), including 45 new recipes, shows parents how to make nutritious meals for the whole family, including babies and young children.

For over 15 years Cynthia Lair's classic cookbook has been the source for parents who want to cook one healthy meal for the entire family. With more than 200 recipes and full-color photographs, this revised fourth edition teaches the basics of understanding a balanced whole-foods diet, from grains and beans to meat, dairy, fruits, and vegetables. In each recipe Lair offers instructions on how to adapt meals so that babies who are just starting solids, as well as older babies, can enjoy the dish, while children and adults eat a more complex version to satisfy their palates. All recipes use easy-to-find ingredients, are simple to follow, and will be enjoyable for the whole family.

CYNTHIA LAIR has been on faculty at Bastyr University since 1994 and founded Bastyr's Bachelor of Science in Nutrition and Culinary Arts degree program. She lives in Seattle.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY EATING FOR A HAPPY, HEALTHY BRAIN

75 Recipes for Alleviating Depression, Anxiety, and Memory Loss

Michelle Babb

New from the author of Anti-inflammatory Eating Made Easy (over 13,000 sold), this cookbook shows how to use diet to improve your state of mind.

The latest research shows the connection between a healthy gut and a healthy mind. Inflammation markers are frequently found in the blood of people with anxiety and depression, proving a food-mood connection. In this book nutritionist Michelle Babb shows how reducing that inflammation and balancing the flora in the gut results in a healthy mind. Based on the success of her clients, Babb first explains the science behind this eating plan, then delivers 75 tasty recipes that range from simple to easy gourmet that will satisfy your taste buds, your microbiome, and your mood!

Based in Seattle, MICHELLE BABB, MS, RD, CD, is a registered dietitian with a master's degree in nutrition from Bastyr University. Her expertise in functional medicine helps her to empower clients to heal themselves by changing their relationship with food.

CRAB

*50 Recipes with the Fresh Taste of the Sea
from the Pacific, Atlantic & Gulf Coasts*

Cynthia Nims

From the author of Oysters comes this collection of tasty recipes for Dungeness, Alaskan king, and snow crab from the West Coast and blue and stone crab from the East.

If you dream about perfectly prepared crab cakes, steamed Dungeness straight from the shell, or lightly coated soft-shell blue crabs, this is your cookbook. Culinary expert Cynthia Nims offers 50 delicious ways to love crab—whether it comes from Pacific Coast waters, the Chesapeake Bay, or the Gulf of Mexico. Pulled from your own crab pot or sourced at the local fishmonger, crab is always wild and brings a sweet taste of the sea to every bite. Beyond the recipes, Nims offers background on crab species, information about seasonal harvest and sport crabbing, and plenty of kitchen tips to make the most out of crab. Pass the crab crackers!

CYNTHIA NIMS is a cookbook author and culinary consultant focused on food, beverages, and travel. Based in Seattle, she is the author of 15 cookbooks, and served on the editorial team for Modernist Cuisine.
