Ten Speed Press and Clarkson Potter create smart, high-quality, vibrant, and design-forward stationery and gift books. Their range of impulse products are accessible, on-trend and stylishly produced. Each year, our growing list will include favorite authors and artists and introduce fresh new talent as well. We hope you will love our innovative formats, exciting partners, and novelty projects—all designed with our key consumers in mind: bibliophiles, millennials, parents, travelers, soul-searchers and creatives.

Friends & Ramblings

Besties

Besties smartly captures all the reasons why best friends are . . . well, the best: they help you make decisions, are there through rough patches, and will always be your +1 for awkward parties. Even more than that, best friends are the people with whom dearest memories are shared, whether trivial or meaningful. In a style that is at turns both sweet and quirky, celebrated indie artist Leah Goren illustrates the many ways in which close friendships withstand the test of time, cross-country moves, failed romantic relationships, and silly arguments. Featuring whimsical artwork and a sincere message, this is the book friends both young and mature will want to give each other to show their appreciation. 4C Illustrations Throughout, 96 pages.

LEAH GOREN is a Brooklyn-based illustrator.

Inner Ramblings

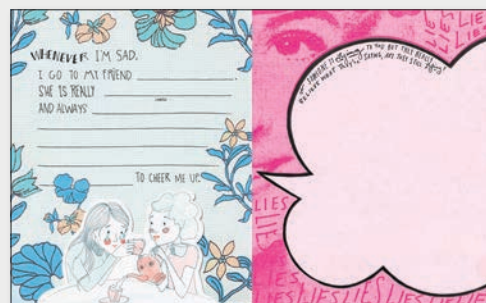

A Journal

Visually dynamic, Inner Ramblings is the interactive journal for the 12-year-old who can't wait to turn 16, the professional looking to inject some quick creativity into her vacation, and the woman who loves DIY but doesn't have the time to full-on craft. Each page of this journal will be a different themed collage guiding the journaler on an introspective romp through myriad questions, exercises, and activities. Prompts include:

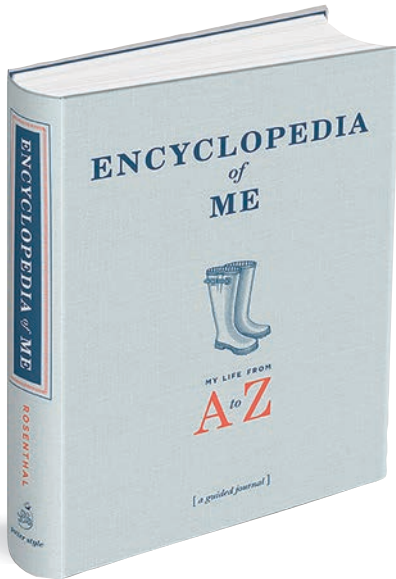

- Memory/searching questions. ("What is something you and your best friend die laughing over that is so stupid everyone thinks you're idiots?")
- Collage components. ("Next time you buy something, tape the receipt here." With spaces allotted to draw the items/annotate them.)
- 8 letter prompts throughout to be torn out and mailed. 96 pages.

Personal Journals

Encyclopedia of Me

My Life from A-Z

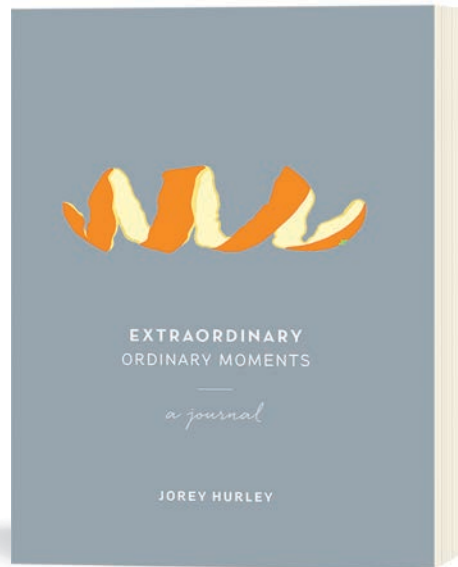

Encyclopedia of Me: My Life from A to Z is the next generation of All About Me and the perfect journal for anyone who would like to record their memories and stories but doesn't know where to begin. Amy Krouse Rosenthal, author of the memoir Encyclopedia of an Ordinary Life, provides an easy and inspiring way to chronicle the ordinary and extraordinary moments of your life and give them a sense of order. For each letter of the alphabet, Amy supplies a series of thoughtful prompts (for example, C is for "Childhood, my very first memory from.") The journal is designed to look and feel like a reference book and includes thumb-cut tabs to help writers navigate quickly to each letter. Just writing a brief entry for each prompt will result in a quirkily organized self-portrait in a handsome-looking package. 400 pages.

AMY KROUSE ROSENTHAL is an author of adult and children's books; contributor to magazines and NPR; host of the literary and music variety show Writers' Block Party; and mother of some kids. She lives in Chicago.

Extraordinary Ordinary Moments

A Journal

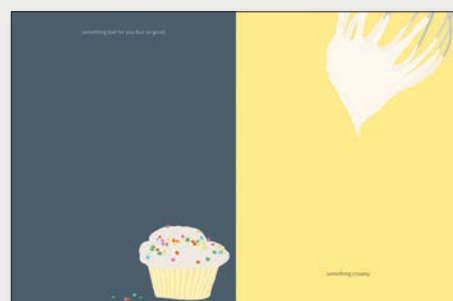

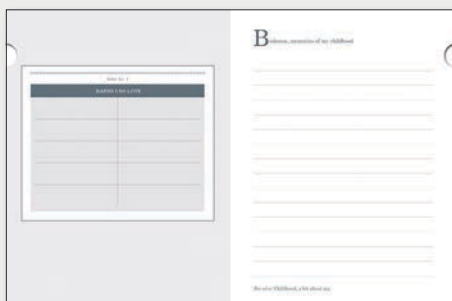

Mindfulness. Gratitude. Intention-setting. They're practices we know we're supposed to engage in, but unplugging and focusing can be a challenge. In My Extraordinary Ordinary Moments, Jorey Hurley pairs written prompts with delicate but bright illustrations to help readers zone in to notice and remember the perhaps unexpectedly amazing things they might have come across during even the most ordinary of days. Maybe it was something squishy (guacamole deserves praise!), a texture (your sweet kitten's pink tongue), or something thrown away (an orange rind peeled just the right way is memorable). With a prompt for every day of the year, the pages leave plenty of space for the reader to write, draw, doodle, or even paste in a photo. 365 Illustrations, 368 pages.

JOREY HURLEY is an author and illustrator based in San Francisco. She studied art at Princeton, design at FIT, and law at Stanford. Today, she works as a freelance illustrator and graphic designer. She lives in the Presidio National Park with her husband, two young daughters, and dog.

Speaking Properly

You're Saying It Wrong

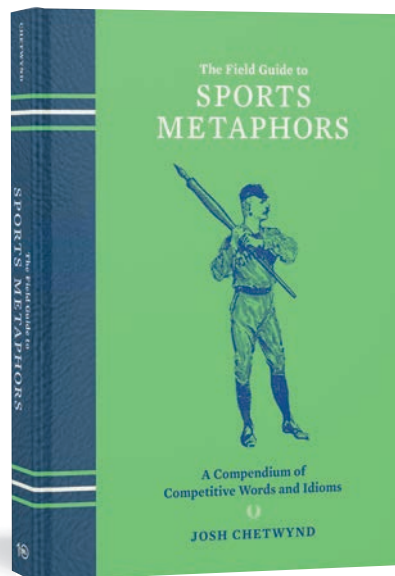

A Pronunciation Guide to the 150 Most Commonly Mispronounced Words—and Their Tangled Histories of Misuse

With wit and good humor, this handy little book not only saves us from sticky linguistic situations but also provides fascinating cocktail-party-ready anecdotes. Entries reveal how to pronounce boatswain like an old salt on the deck of a ship, trompe l'oeil like a bona fide art expert, and haricot vert like a foodie, while arming us with the knowledge of why certain words are correctly pronounced the "slangy" way (they came about before dictionaries), what stalks of grain have to do with pronunciation, and more. With bonus sidebars like "How to Sound like a Seasoned Traveler" and "How to Sound Cultured," readers will be able to speak about foreign foods and places, fashion, philosophy, and literature with authority. No Photos/Illus, 192 pages.

ROSS PETRAS and KATHRYN PETRAS are the authors of the #1 best-selling page-a-day calendar The 365 Stupidest Things Ever Said (now in its 21st year with over 4.5 million copies sold), Wretched Writing, It Always Seems Impossible Until It's Done, The Anthology of Really Important Modern Poetry, and more.

Field Guide to Sports Metaphors

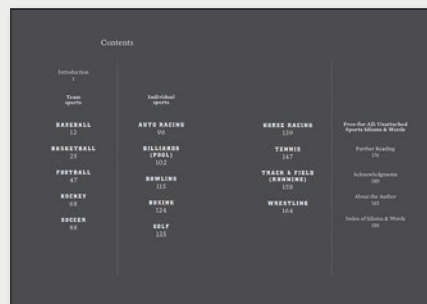

A Compendium of Competitive Words and Idioms

The language of sports resonates beyond the grass and dirt of the local ball field because it is so evocative. The gridiron as a battlefield, the quarterback as the man in charge—these concepts slip seamlessly into the words of everyone from politicians to businesspeople. But the English language is also peppered with not-so-obvious instances of sports and games influence like stymie (golf) and shoo-in (horse racing). Filled with pithy little entries on each idiom, plus quotes showing how the likes of President Barack Obama, President George W. Bush, and Donald Trump use them in a sentence, this quirky little handbook is sure to be a conversation starter at tailgates, cocktail parties, and in the boardroom. No Photos/Illus, 224 pages.

Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up

The Japanese Art of Decluttering and Organizing

Japanese organizational consultant Marie Kondo takes tidying to a whole new level, promising that if you properly declutter your home once, you'll never have to do it again. Whereas most methods advocate a room-by-room or little-by-little approach, the KonMari Method's category-by-category, all-at-once prescription leads to lasting results. This quirky little manual from Japan's newest lifestyle phenomenon will help readers clear their clutter and enjoy the unique magic of a tidy home—and the calm, motivated mindset it can inspire. One Color, 224 pages.

Q&A for Everyone

Q&A a Day 5-Year Journal

This journal was created to help you make a time capsule of the next five years of your life in the simplest way possible. You can start at any point in the year. Simply turn to today's date, and take a few moments to answer the question at the top of the page (or don't answer it; it's your journal). When you finish the year, move on to the next section. As the years go by you'll notice how your answers change (or don't). The questions are sometimes provocative, occasionally funny, and inevitably interesting. The diary can be started on any day of the year and makes a terrific keepsake or tool for introspection. 368 pages.

Our Q&A a Day 3-Year Journal for 2 People

Following the phenomenal success of Q&A a Day, Our Q&A a Day provides a question for every day of the year, with enough space for two people to jot down a one- or two-sentence response. The journal offers a variety of questions; some may address the relationship ("Where would you like to travel with your partner?"); others suggest writing something about each other ("What does your partner's laugh sound like?"); many are simply questions that each person answers individually ("What is your top priority today?"). Over a three-year period, both writers can see how their answers compare, contrast, and change as they create a lasting keepsake of their relationship. Format: Flexi-bound journal, 5 1/2 x 7 in. 368 pages.

Instant Happy Journal

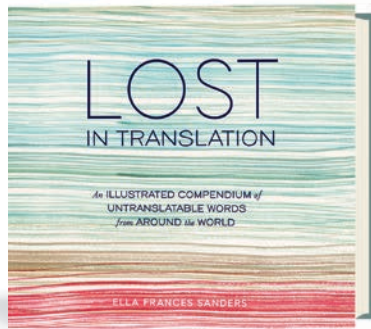

365 Days of Inspiration, Gratitude, and Joy

On the heels of Karen Salmansohn's wildly popular gift book Instant Happy comes this happiness journal, with daily prompts to help you think about and apply happiness wisdom to your own life. Each page features a specific intention, inspiring quote, surprising scientific fact, or thought-provoking question to ponder. This journal teaches the top two habits of happy people: to naturally set their intention to enjoy a happy day, then end the day reflecting on what made them happy. When you end your day writing about what went right, you further strengthen your happiness mindset. With fill-in dates so that you can write and reflect at your own pace, this little journal features a graphic design and fresh attitude perfect for today's modern happiness-seeker. 368 pages.

Words from Around the World

Lost in Translation

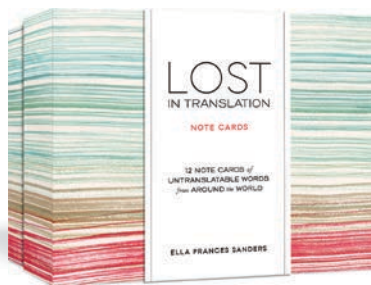

An Illustrated Compendium of Untranslatable Words from Around the World

Did you know that the Japanese have a word to express the way sunlight filters through the leaves of trees? Or that there's a Swedish word to describe the reflection of the moon across the water? The nuanced beauty of language is even more interesting and relevant in our highly communicative, globalized modern world. Lost in Translation brings this wonder to life with 50 ink illustrations featuring the foreign word, the language of origin, and a pithy definition. Each beautiful, simple illustration adds just the right amount of visual intrigue to anchor the words and their meanings. 50 illustrations, 112 pages.

Lost in Translation Note Cards

Untranslatable Words from Around the World

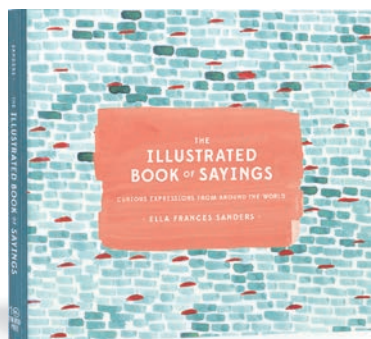

This beautifully produced box of note cards and envelopes will feature the charming and whimsical illustrated definitions of portmanteau words the author discovered in other languages and cultures around the world. The words extracted from Lost in Translation, the best-selling book, will deal with emotions relating to love and friendship to extend the note cards' use beyond Valentine's Day. For the lover, killig, in Tagalog, means the feeling of butterflies in your stomach, usually when something romantic or cute takes place. 12 pages.

ELLA FRANCES SANDERS is a writer, illustrator, and student. She recently spent six months in Morocco working for the soon-to-be-launched Maptia, a map/travel experience website, for which she created the original words and illustrations that inspired this book.

Illustrated Book of Sayings

Curious Expressions from Around the World

Ella Frances Sanders's first book, Lost in Translation, captured the imagination of readers with its charmingly illustrated words that have no direct English translation. Now, the New York Times-bestselling author is back with an illustrated collection that addresses the nuances of language in the form of sayings from around the world. From the French idiom "to pedal in the sauerkraut," (i.e., "to spin your wheels.") to the Japanese idiom "even monkeys fall from trees" (meaning, "even experts can be wrong"), Sanders presents sayings that reveal the remarkable diversity, humor, and poignancy of the world's languages and cultures. 52 illustrations.

Popular Birds

Owls

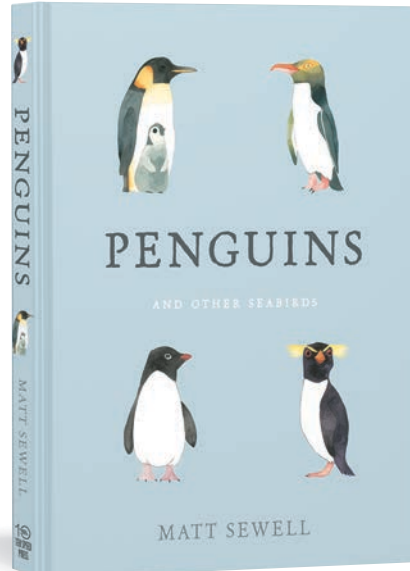

Our Most Charming Bird

In this beautiful and highly giftable art book, artist and ornithologist Matt Sewell captures 50 species of the world's most evocative bird: the owl. Using pop-art watercolors and accompanied by witty and irreverent descriptions, Sewell expresses the individual characters of owls as never before. From tiny elf owls to huge Eurasian eagle owls, from the haunting barn owl to the elegant great horned owl, these wise, magical birds are otherworldly in their striking colors and stature. It's not just birdwatchers who are obsessed: owls are a perennial favorite in pop culture, decorating, and among children as well as nature lovers and serious birders. From David Sedaris's Let's Explore Diabetes with Owls to Harry Potter's pet Hedwig, and throwback interest in Twin Peaks and its trademark spook owls, these birds are here to stay. 50 Illustrations, 128 pages.

Penguins and Other Seabirds

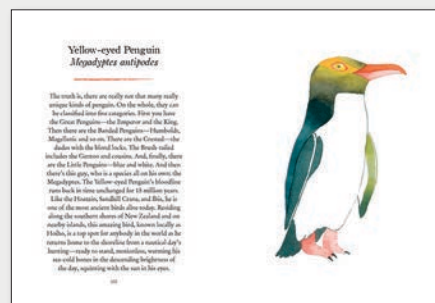

In this beautiful and highly giftable art book, artist and ornithologist Matt Sewell captures 50 species of the world's most beloved bird—penguins—and other sea bird favorites like puffins and albatrosses. Using pop-art watercolors and accompanied by whimsical profiles of each species, Sewell expresses the individual characters of sea birds as never before. From the little penguin, who is only 13 inches tall, to the Fiordland crested penguin, who sports bushy yellow eyebrows, these charismatic birds are sure to delight both young and old. 50 Illustrations, 128 pages.

MATT SEWELL, who has been described as “the Banksy of the bird world,” is an avid ornithologist and artist. He is the author of Owls, Our Garden Birds, Our Woodland Birds, and Our Songbirds, and has illustrated for The Guardian and Big Issue among many other publications. His art has been exhibited in London, Manchester, New York, Tokyo, and Paris.
